

Dinner

The Retired Police Officers Association annual dinner is scheduled for Thursday November 23 (6pm for 6:30pm start) at a cost of $40 per member and partner, and $25 for non-members. Payment is due before November 13, and Rae Holloway is still taking bookings on 8556 6787.

- Please note that, in the August issue of the Police Journal, I mistakenly listed the dinner as scheduled for November 21.

Regional

The RPOA's Mid-North chairman, Kym Boxall, reported that 28 members attended the area's last meeting. This number was down slightly on those of previous meetings, at which the average was 32 members.

The RPOA committee intends to visit Kadina in the New Year.

Medal presentation

Commissioner Mal Hyde presented the Police Service Medal on Friday July 28 at Fort Largs; and it did the hearts of RPOA members good to be united with many old friends.

The RPOA congratulates the organizers of this ceremony, which went off smoothly. This organizational effort was outstanding, given that some of us "oldies" had long since left behind the regimental mentality that we had held so dear.

Graduation

The RPOA presented its Operational Safety Award to Probationary Constable Kate Longden at her graduation with Course 79 at Fort Largs on Wednesday August 16.

New members

The RPOA welcomes new members Ken McLean, Gregory

Annual fees

Members who pay their $15.60 fee annually are reminded that it is now due to treasurer Lex Teague at 74 Tiparra Avenue, Park Holme, 5043.

Vale

The RPOA extends its sympathy to the families and friends of John Jefferyes, Peter Mason, Peter Collise, Stephen Paull, Margaret Turner, Terry Richardson, Maxine Walters, June Taylor, Dulcie Amundson, and Harold Stewart.

Committee

A number of members attended the RPOA annual general meeting in July. The results of the nominations for committee appeared in the August issue of the Police Journal.

Secretary Bev Schemmell can be contacted on 8276 7202. I can be reached on 8299 0664.

Retired Police Officers Association president Ray Williams presents the Operational Safety Award to Probationary Constable Kate Longden.
